RUSH TO WED BY OLD LAW.

Fifty Licenses in Day Sets New County Record.

Genealogical Tree Must Be Climbed Hereafter.

Mothers-in-Law and Divorces Now Cut Figure.

All previous marriage license records for Los Angeles county were smashed yesterday, when fifty certificates were issued by "Cupid" W. C. Watson of the County Clerk's office. This is almost double the daily average maintained for the preceding portion of this leafy month of mating.

The remarkable rush was due to the fact that the new law pertaining to marriage licenses goes into effect today. Many of those who dashed into matrimony yesterday apparently felt that it would be difficult, and possibly unpleasant, to answer all the questions provided on the new form of certificate.

Beginning today, it will be almost necessary for both applicants to appear at the Clerk's office before a license can be issued. Heretofore, either the bride or groom could obtain the coveted slip of paper on the payment of the $2 fee, and upon answering just a few questions as to names and ages.

Now the bride and groom must appear in person. What was her maiden name? What is her nativity? How many times have you been married? How many times divorced?

These are samples of some of the questions. There are many more. YACHT ON NAMES. In the past there have been many instances wherein a man applying for a license was unable to give any more than the first name of the woman he proposed to marry. It was only a short time ago that a youth said he could remember only that the girl's name was "Pet." He had to scurry around and get the register and the name before the license could be issued.

The matter of ages has been a stickler in the past with many applicants. Memories of some prospective brides have been woefully weak as to the date of their birth. Many insisted that the age be left out of the record—and by all means kept out of the papers! But all such pleas were futile. If applicants wish to assume the responsibility of making affidavit to the truth of statements made, they are at liberty to do so.

Now the answers must include the full name, age, residence and nativity of bride and groom; the full names of the father and mother of each; the maiden name of the mother of each; whether either applicant ever has been married before; if so, how many times; whether either has been divorced, and how often.

UNPOPULAR FEATURES. The giving of facts as to former marriages and divorces is expected to prove extremely unpopular. Some truths might come out that are not generally known. It would be rather painful for a bride, for instance, who has been assured all along that she is the only girl he ever loved, to learn that the groom has been through the divorce mill once or twice.

These facts must be given, however; not necessarily for publication, but as a sort of guarantee of good faith.

There was a good deal of anxiety in the waiting line of applicants last yesterday afternoon, for fear that De-

The information to be given hereafter is to be used by the State Bureau of Vital Statistics in the compilation of its records. The facts given in the past have not been as complete as desired, and the Legislature was prevailed upon to change the marriage license law in accordance with the wishes of the statisticians.

The function was largely attended by friends of Mr. Hagerman and of the association. Oscar B. Smith, a member of the board of directors, acted as toastmaster, and J. G. STINGING ANSWER, WOMAN VS. WOMAN.
He took her on a trip to England and Ireland, and on shipboard she created a scene by accusing him of immoral conduct. In June, 1908, she deserted him and remained away for a long time, finally asking him to take her back, saying that she had done wrong. He took her back, but she repeated her tactics of abuse. In November, 1908, she made him sleep on the sofa, and afterward grabbed him by the hair and yanked him from that resting place, and after quarreling two or three times, she finally got into another room and turned on the gas. He broke in the door and rescued her from asphyxiation. In the same month she threw dishes and furniture at him, and was always nagging her husband. She deserted him again in November, 1908, according to the answer.

CONSOLIDATION DELAY.

Absence of Several Councilmen from City May Prevent Meeting Today to Call Election.

Unless at least two Councilmen now out of the city appear at the special meeting arranged for today the election for the consolidation of Los Angeles, San Pedro and Wilmington cannot be called before next Monday. In this event, the date of the election is not likely to fall in the month of July, as at least thirty days must elapse between the issuance of the call and the casting of the ballots.

Only four of the nine Councilmen were in the city last night—Wren, Yonkin, Clamptin and Dromgold. Wallace was at Coalinga, Pease at Sealte, Blanchard at Bear Valley and Healy at Murietta Springs. The whereabouts of Lyon was unknown.

It was hoped by City Attorney Hewitt late in the evening that Wallace and Healy could be reached in time for today's meeting, but the outlook was dubious.

If the efforts for a meeting today prove unsuccessful, the City Attorney said he will endeavor to get the Council together on Monday so that the election call may be rushed.

The Chamber of Commerce yesterday adopted resolution requesting the Congressman from this district to use his efforts toward securing the retention of Capt. Angelo Priess, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A., in charge of the government work on San Pedro harbor.

Later on, it is alleged, to pacify her,

SPEED COSTS BROKEN RIBS.

Driver Hurt When Auto Hits Telephone Pole.

Racing at Rate of Sixty-two Miles an Hour.

Mechanic Escapes Injury by Timely Jump.

J. A. Scott of No. 1214 East Adams street was seriously hurt yesterday afternoon, when the Pope-Hartford racer he was driving skidded and hit a telephone post on the Venice road. Scott was jammed against the steering wheel and sustained two broken ribs. The car turned over, and H. B. Curtis, the mechanic, had a narrow escape.

The accident happened on the approach to the hill, near the Serrano packing-house and about a mile and a half from the city limits. Scott and Curtis were returning from the Santa Monica road race course, where the car had been tried out. It was impossible to speed over the course, and Scott decided to try racing over the level stretch leading to this city.

"GAVE HER THE GUN." After leaving the bridge beyond Adams street, the Pope was speeded. Scott "gave her the gun," and she responded splendidly. The speedometer indicated forty-five and then fifty miles an hour, and still Scott was forcing the machine.

As they approached the hill, Curtis urged the driver to "give her another notch," and the Pope leaped into the teeth of the breeze at a terrific clip. The speedometer registering sixty-two miles an hour. Then the accident happened. The car skidded clear across the road, leaped into the air, and then dived straight at the telephone pole. Curtis jumped just before the collision. Scott pluckily held on to the wheel.

THUNDEROUS CRASH. With a thunderous crash the Pope hit the pole, then circled partly around it and rolled over into the ditch. The steering knuckle was bent, the radiator damaged, and the tires were ripped off.

William R. Ruess, owner of the car, and the mechanic, however, were on a smooth stretch when the car misbehaved. That he was not killed is considered remarkable. In speaking of the affair, he said:

"I thought it would be safe to let her out on the approach to the hill, and that it would be easy to control her. Just what happened, I don't know. It was a narrow escape, but we will be able to fix the machine up, and expect to have her out on the course again before the end of next week."

CRUISER FOR CONVENTION. Albany Ordered to San Pedro to Participate in the Elks' Convention.

A dispatch from Washington says the cruiser Albany, now at Corinto, Nicaragua, has been ordered to San Pedro, to participate in the Elks' carnival to be held at Los Angeles from July 10 to 17.

The vessel will then proceed to San Francisco.

ROGERS' DECISION SOON.

Justice Ling will decide the first of the week whether he will hold J. S. Rogers and Ernest E. Rogers to answer to the Superior Court on the charge of compounding a felony. The trial is expected to show that the charge was made by Frank Dunham, Jr., was post dated. To compound a felony, a crime must be committed. The defense holds that the issuance of the post-dated check is no felony, hence the defendants committed no crime under the law. Deputy District Attorney McCormick, however, insists that the defendants ought to be held for trial in the upper court on the ground that they extorted money from Mrs. Dunham for the ostensible purpose of quashing the criminal charge against her husband.

Young Schoolteacher Now Gets Her Salary for May of Last Year.

Miss Cora Parker, a teacher in the Gates-street school, drew a month's salary yesterday, just one year late. The warrant she received was for May, 1908, and has been in the City Auditor's hands all that time. Checking up the books for the end of the fiscal year—June 30—the Auditor found it.

He at once notified Miss Parker by telephone and the young teacher hurried to the City Hall to get $85 for a month's work.

Miss Parker said she had in some way run a month behind in drawing her salary, and had completely forgotten the warrant of last year in so busy a pay goes.

After she got the warrant cashed at the Treasurer's office Miss Parker tripped to the west side of Broadway, where the shop windows are inviting.

Unclaimed Express Packages Burned in Basement at Sixth and Main Streets.

A number of unclaimed express packages were destroyed last night by a small fire in the basement of the Central building at Sixth and Main streets and some damage was done by water.

The fire was discovered at 11 o'clock by Joe Baeel, the night watchman. While making his rounds he noticed that the windows of the Wells Fargo & Co. express offices had been steamed with smoke. An investigation showed that the basement was filled with smoke. The firemen chopped out the glass sidewalk and after working half an hour, located the blaze in a pile of rubbish.

The packages destroyed had been sent in from small country stations and were probably of little or no value. The stationery room was flooded with water and a considerable amount of stock was damaged or rendered useless.

Don of Captain in Invading Mexican Army Lives to See Little Community Become Great City. Funeral Probably to Be Held at Old Plaza Church.

Juan Pedro Olvera, born in Los Angeles ninety-one years ago, was stricken with pneumonia Thursday and died early yesterday morning, after an illness of only a few hours, at the home of his son, F. D. Olvera of No. 1110 West Second street. His father was one of the original Spanish settlers in Southern California, having come here as a captain of the invading Mexican army about 1784. For a number of years he was commander of various stations, and came to Los Angeles in 1818.

As an officer in the army he acquired large land holdings in this vicinity, which, at his death, when Juan was 29 years old, reverted to the only son. Of all the properties, the Rancho Tepenquet, consisting of several thousand acres and located where Santa Barbara now stands, was the largest. There was also the entire block in Los Angeles, bounded by Main, First and Temple streets and Broadway.

On October 3, of 1854, Juan Pedro was married with the greatest ceremony possible at the Old Plaza Church to Venina, a la Paz, the daughter of one of the ruling dons of this section. The feasting lasted for days and was an event in the history of the little community. Mrs. Olvera is still living.

A few years after the wedding Mr. Olvera removed to a large ranch in the Santa Maria Valley. He built the first public schoolhouse in that district and his charity was widespread. Not realizing the great change that was to come he sold his holdings in Southern California and returned to his native land.

Several years ago Olvera gained notoriety by bringing suit to regain the title to the Los Cerritos, Los Alamitos and Los Coyotes ranches, which he claimed, belong to his widow, as they were owned by her father under one of the old land grants.

Mr. Olvera leaves two daughters and seven sons. The youngest of the children is 31. There are also ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but it will probably be held in the Old Plaza Church on Monday afternoon. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

His case was to come up yesterday, but before he could appear, his wife had disappeared at the jail—apparently motioned toward his son-in-law "by the thought of being a grandfather—and asked that Stephenson be allowed to go to his home. He said that he would be responsible for Stephenson's appearance and demanded that the complaint between the father-in-law and Stephenson the magistrate and prosecutor be dropped. The magistrate released Stephenson for one month on his own recognizance. When the order was issued, the father-in-law walked from the station arm in arm.

Comfortable Shoes For All Children

Dress your child in obedience to natural laws and you have solved most of the problem of healthful development. This is particularly true of the child's feet; a shoe that tortures, tires or cramps the growing foot, often makes the child peevish and fretful—sometimes sick.

This special shoe is designed to prevent foot disorders; it gives plenty of room for all toes, and properly supports the tender muscles of arch and ankle.

Made in all leathers—button and lace patterns—high or low cuts.

NOTES, FEATURES AND FRANCES. FOR WOMEN

BY SYDNEY FORD.

At a woman's club, I have been a charming woman. As she greeted a beautiful woman, I saw a flash of the eye and a smile. "There's nothing new in it," she said, "but I am sure it is a new one." I had heard of it, but I had not seen it. It was a new one, and it was a new one. I had heard of it, but I had not seen it. It was a new one, and it was a new one.

of the winter class of '10, fled into the hall they were radiant in white and purple, and wore purple wreaths about their shoulders, Hawaiian fashion. The boys were in white trousers and white shirt waists and the girls in full white. The graduating class was more modest in attire. The boys each wearing his ordinary business suit, the girls white gowns, and all were decorated with the class colors, red and white.

The presentation of the class pins by the winter, '10 class, was preceded by a brief address by Horace E. Elder, class president, to the graduates. The curtain then rose and showed the members of the winter class, forming a line across the stage. As their names were called, an equal number of members of the graduating class marched in and stood to be decorated with the pins. This process was repeated until the 200 had been decorated, when Charles Rogers, president, expressed the thanks of his class for the honor. The exercises closed with the singing of the national anthem.

A piano solo by Lester Donohue, attracted unusual attention on account of its masterly execution. The young boy received considerable applause. March and List's "Edin Chorus," and, notwithstanding the great length of his performance, was well received to respond to an insistent encore.

After adjournment, the faculty tendered an informal reception to the alumni, in the gymnasium, representatives being present from every class graduated since the opening of the school.

The class play will be presented in the Burbank Theater Tuesday afternoon, and the performance will be held in the Auditorium on Wednesday afternoon.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—(To the Editor of the Times.) The verdict of the jury in the Calhoun trial in San Francisco is a matter of public record. The people all know that, but for the opinion of one man, the verdict would have been absolutely for acquittal; and now I offer the following suggestion—I offer it as a citizen of this great State, as one who has the interest of California at heart. I offer it for the general good of all the people of the State and of the Pacific Coast.

Let a petition to the highest officials be circulated and secure the signatures of every man and woman who honestly believes in stopping once and for all this great detrimental force—the grafting of money into the pockets of the few, and the loss of the property of the many. Let that petition be so worded as to express in no uncertain words the opinions of the people. Give us a new deal. Wipe out the state, no matter the motive of either side. Stop this whole thing and work in union and accord to build up in place of tearing down; and from Siskiyou in the north to San Diego in the south, and from the Sierras to the sea, secure such an expression of opinion that this persecution may stop—this once.

FIGHT ON COPPER COMPANY.

GLOBE, June 23.—There are indications of a hard-fought case in the suit of James A. Fleming against the Black Warrior Copper Company, of which he was the founder and manager for several years. The plaintiff has alleged that members of the company have formed an unlawful conspiracy to defraud him of valuable stock, and to satisfy a claim held by the Phoenix National Bank was collusive and designed to defraud him. All this is denied by the company's answer, which seeks to show that the debts of the corporation were of Fleming's making, and that he had been given due notice of all legal proceedings involving his interest in the company. It is alleged also that Fleming was a member of the board of directors that agreed to a reorganization of the company, an action he now assails. The main trouble with the mine, according to local view, was the attempt of the management to work the ore by a novel and untried lamination process, on which about half a million dollars were expended with little result.

G. A. Henry of the First Baptist Church. He will preach in the tent nightly during July, beginning on the 10th, and will have the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Potts, singers. There will also be a chorus of 200 voices.

Dr. Henry is a powerful speaker, and has the faculty of presenting Bible truths in a striking way. He is also an evangelist of wide experience, having first come to Los Angeles in that capacity. There are intimations that the tent meetings will be followed by an evangelistic trip around the world by Dr. Henry.

He will occupy his pulpit tomorrow as usual, morning and evening, and at the latter service will introduce Mr. and Mrs. Potts.

A conference of Christian workers will open in the First Baptist Church Wednesday evening, and will continue a week, with three sessions daily. Some of the best-known Bible scholars in the world will be in attendance. Dr. Henry will preside at the opening, and among the other speakers will be Dr. W. C. Sherman and Dr. Elmore Harris.

An interesting program will be provided at the Murphy gospel temperance meeting in Blanchard Hall Sunday afternoon. His subject will be, "America for Christ." In the triangle department, J. P. Hagerman, the new secretary, will speak to young men under 21 years of age, on the subject, "Second Wind."

Evangelist William Sloan will speak at Union Rescue Mission, No. 148 North Main street, Sunday night, and his wife will sing. Rev. L. Schaefer will speak at the City Rescue Mission, No. 304 East Fifth street, at the same hour.

Rev. James R. Pratt of Albany, N. Y., will preach in Calvary Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

A fashionable "crush" characterized the last meeting of the season of the Friday Morning Club yesterday at the Women's Club House, when the newly-elected president, Mrs. O. P. Clark and other officers took their seats.

Mrs. Shelley Tolhurst, retiring president, presented resolutions protesting against the removal of Capt. Fries as engineer in charge of San Pedro harbor work, and had the pleasure of hearing her resolutions adopted.

An enjoyable feature of the last meeting was the presentation of a play entitled "Sister Beatrice," being a dramatization of Maurice Maeterlinck's book.

The leading roles of the play were held by Lillian Burkhardt, as Sister Beatrice, Robert Roworth as Prince Balthazar, and the priest by William Youmans, and Miss Grace Gardner as the abbess. The play was given in three acts. The first was laid in a cloister in the neighborhood of Louvain about the thirteenth century.

The play opened with the matin chime and the nuns in the somber regulation garb of the cloister, with heads bowed low and hands piously crossed upon their breasts, slowly and reverently proceeded to the chapel in single file through the entire length of the auditorium. So perfect was the habit of the nuns reproduced in a visitor channeling into one of the reception-rooms before the play asked one of the sisters (?) if they were not the special guests of the club. The two were represented by Misses John Newton, Russell, Harry C. Carr, Helen Stichel, J. D. Longstreet and Misses Grace Gardner and Mary Gay. Others in the cast were Misses Mathew Robertson, O. O. Witherbee, L. C. Schutze and E. E. Blacy. The story portrayed was a most unusual one, of a young nun who left the cloister, and whose place was taken by the Holy Virgin, to whom Sister Beatrice had always been devoted. After many weary years of wandering Sister Beatrice returned to the cloister to die. The experiences she relates to the other sisters, as she lies dying, is mistaken for hallucinations, ravings, and she dies peacefully in the arms of the mother abbess.

The play was faultlessly presented, and the sacred music accompanying it added to the atmosphere of the play. The Fuhner Quartette, with J. J. Falls as organist, gave the many beautiful numbers. Mrs. Albert Carlos Jones sang an "Ave Maria" impressively, and a chorus of trained voices, pupils of Joseph Dupuy, sang "Lift Up Thine Eyes."

The installation of officers was simply carried out. Mrs. Tolhurst announcing first the board of directors, the members responding by going to the platform, and then the officers. Mrs. Tolhurst surrendered her gavel with a charming little speech, which was responded to happily by the new president. Felicitations were then extended all around, the memorable day closing with a sumptuous luncheon, for which over 500 covers were laid. The new first vice-president is Mrs. Katharine Edson, second, Mrs. D. Moore; recording secretary, Mrs. Jules Kaufman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Morris Albee; treasurer, Mrs. N. K. Potter. The board of directors is made up of Misses W. H. Stoddard, Berthold Baruch, G. Hugbee, H. Harrison and C. Nicholas.

San Bernardino Attorney Has High Opinion of Forest Ranger Who Ran Away to Colton With His Daughter—Calls Elopement Merely Romantic Whim.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN BERNARDINO, June 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Beatrice Waters, 18 years old, daughter of Byron Waters, a well-known attorney of this city, and Howard Thral, forest ranger, were married at Colton tonight by Rev. E. L. B. McCallan, Presbyterian clergyman. They asked the latter to preserve secrecy until tomorrow, wishing to be well out of the valley before news of the nuptials reached relatives or friends.

While the affair was an elopement, the bride's parents having been taken completely by surprise, there was no parental opposition, and Mr. Waters tonight spoke very highly of Thral. He explained the secrecy the lovers threw about their romance as merely a whim.

The young couple left on the late Santa Fe Overland for Hesperia, where Thral is stationed as a forest ranger. His bride is a former high school girl, immensely popular in younger society circles. She and Thral met last summer while in the mountains, where Miss Waters was spending the bested term in her father's sumptuous lodge.

BRIDEGROOM CONFUSED.

William F. Stevenson of Los Angeles, when applying for a marriage license to wed Miss Emma R. Hamilton of Redlands, today, became so confused that he filled out a hunting license application. He then, to cap his confusion, deposited "two bits" with the County Clerk to divide among the correspondents of the Los Angeles papers to suppress news of his application for a license to wed.

DISTURBED REMAINS.

An examination of the skeleton found in Cajon Pass yesterday by a Mexican ditch-digging crew, develops that the bones are those of an Indian, and probably lay in the ground for twenty-five or more years. The ground was formerly a burying ground for Indians of this locality, and it appears that it has not been uncommon to come across the skeletons.

SPANISH HIGH JINKS.

Visiting Members of Press, Here During Elks' Week, Will Be Entertained.

Newspaper men who visit Los Angeles during the Elks' Grand Lodge meeting will be entertained by members of the press here with a Spanish high-jinks, whatever that may turn out to be, at Casa Verdugo. The exact date has not been fixed because it is the wish to do good to the greatest number, or do the greatest number good, as may be deemed proper when more information is obtained. But, at any rate, the visitors are to be regaled with frijoles, chili con carne, enchiladas and old vintages of the Dots, and to be spared from speeches.

An informal dinner at the Saddle Rock last night was attended by about twenty newspaper men. Douglas White, head of the Elks' press bureau, was made chairman, and W. E. Wing, secretary. A provisional organization intended to bring all the newspaper workers of the city into the enterprise was formed, and the general arrangements placed in the hands of a committee composed of George E. Graham, W. H. Haggood, Lemuel Parton, W. R. Williams, E. O. Sawyer, W. H. Cline, J. R. Lawrence, Sam T. Clover, H. H. Beall and E. A. Dickson.

A feature of the day will be a vextra edition of the Casa Verdugo "Cactus," edited by Haggood, whose staff will consist of everybody in the business here. Instead of toasts or speeches there will be various stunts, much after the manner of the Oriflora Club and the Amen Corner Club, following each course of the dinner.

NOT COUNTERFEITING CAMPS.

George W. Hazen, head of the local secret service bureau, discredits reports in a yellow morning paper to the effect that several counterfeiting camps have been discovered in the vicinity of the Poltera murder. He stated yesterday that an investigation showed there was nothing to indicate any one was contemplating the operation of a bogus money plant. He said the blue clay molds found two or three days after the murder indicated that some idler was experimenting.
